

A group of students were asked to list what they thought were the present

"Seven Wonders of the World."

Though there were some disagreements,
the following received the most votes:

1. Egypt's Great Pyramids
2. Taj Mahal
3. Grand Canyon
4. Panama Canal
5. Empire State Building
6. St. Peter's Basilica
7. China's Great Wall

While gathering
the votes,
the teacher
noted that one student had not finished her paper yet.

4 / 25

So she asked the girl if she was having trouble with her list. The girl replied, "Yes, a little. I couldn't quite make up my mind because there were so many."

The teacher said,
"Well, tell us
what you have,
and maybe we can help".

"The girl hesitated, then read:
"I think the 'Seven Wonders of the World' are:

1. To See...

2. To Hear...

3. To Touch...

4. To Taste...

5. To Feel...

4/3/21

6. To Laugh...

7. And to Love."

The room was so quiet you could have heard a pin drop.
The things we overlook as simple and ordinary and that we take for granted are truly wondrous!

A gentle reminder :

The image features a central blue rectangle with a multi-colored border that transitions through the colors of a rainbow (red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple). The text is centered within the blue area.

That the most precious things in life cannot be built by hand or bought by man.

Don't be too busy to pass this along.
